LUKE 15:11-32

Meanwhile, the older son was in the field. When he came near the house, he heard music and dancing. So he called one of the servants and asked him what was going on. 'Your brother has come,' he replied, 'and your father has killed the fattened calf because he has him back safe and sound!'

The older brother became angry and refused to go in. So his father went out and pleaded with him. But he answered his father, 'Look! All these years I've been slaving for you and never disobeyed your orders. Yet you never gave me even a young goat so I could celebrate with my friends. But when this son of yours who has squandered your property with prostitutes comes home, you kill the fattened calf for him!'

'My son,' the father said, 'you are always with me, and everything I have is yours. But we had to celebrate and be glad, because this brother of yours was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found!'

A person wearing a red beanie and a plaid shirt is walking away from the camera down a long, straight, paved road that stretches into the distance. The landscape is a vast, open plain with low hills in the background. A fence runs along the right side of the road. The sky is overcast and grey. The overall mood is contemplative and somber.

There is more than one way to wander from God
