

A white rectangular card is centered in the image, featuring the word "light." written in a black, elegant cursive script. The card is set against a dark, textured background, likely a wooden surface, which is adorned with several lit candles. The candles are arranged in a grid-like pattern, with some in the foreground and others slightly behind. The light from the candles creates a warm, golden glow, illuminating the scene and casting soft shadows. The overall composition is balanced and visually appealing, with the word "light." serving as the central focus.

Acts 1:21-26

“So the eleven disciples proposed two men: Joseph and Matthias. Then they prayed, ‘Lord, you know everyone’s heart. Show us which of these two you have chosen to take over this apostolic ministry, which Judas left to go where he belongs.’ Then they drew lots, and the lots fell to Matthias; so he was added to the eleven apostles.”

Acts 16:6-10

“Paul and his companions traveled throughout the region of Phrygia and Galatia, having been kept by the Holy Spirit from preaching the word in the province of Asia.

When they came to the border of Mysia, they tried to enter Bithynia, but the Spirit of Jesus would not allow them to. So they passed Mysia and went down to Troas. During the night Paul had a dream of a man of Macedonia standing and begging him, ‘Come over to Macedonia and help us.’

After Paul had seen the dream, we got ready at once to leave for Macedonia, concluding that God had called us to preach the Gospel to them.”
