John 20:1-22

“Early on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene went to the tomb and saw that the stone had been removed from the entrance. So she came running to Peter and John, and said, “They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and I don’t know where they have put Him!”

So Peter and John started for the tomb. Both were running, but John outran Peter and reached the tomb first. He bent over and looked in at the strips of linen lying there but did not go in. Then Simon Peter came along behind him and went straight into the tomb. He saw the strips of linen lying there, as well as the cloth that had been wrapped around Jesus’ head. The cloth was still lying in its place, separate from the linen. Finally John, who had reached the tomb first, also went inside. He saw and believed. (Though they still did not understand from Scripture that Jesus had to rise from the dead.) Then the disciples went back to where they were staying....

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the disciples were together, with the doors locked for fear, Jesus came and stood among them and said, “Peace be with you!” After He said this, He showed them His hands and side. The disciples were overjoyed when they saw the Lord. Again Jesus said, “Peace be with you! As the Father has sent me, I am sending you.” And with that--He breathed on them and said, “Receive the Holy Spirit.”
